Today's Game

Omaha Last Hope for Tigers

If the Fort Hays Kansas State Tigers hope to win their first victory of the season, they picked one of the better teams offensively to stop and as good a candidate as any to meet at the tailend of the season recordwise.

Omaha, expected to be a powerhouse at the season's start, hasn't lived up to the pre-season buildup but neither have the Tigers. The major battle today will be the Rocco Gonnella aerial game vs. the running of Tiger Tommy Evans. Omaha's aerial strength lies with Gonnella, a passing wizard who ranks fifth in the nation with 1,387 yards passing, and his top target, Tom McKernan.

Fort Hays looks to be improved in their rushing game as Tommy Evans has discovered the magic method to yard-gaining. Evans has 886-yards and needs just 13-yards to become the top ground gainer (season) in FHS history. Against four foes, Evans has gained better than 100 yards with his high of 267 against Emporia State. Evans ranks tops in the conference in total yards rushing with his 886.

John Covington, Tiger quarterback, will enter the game with a broken nose received in the Pittsburg game last week. Covington hasn't performed as well as he did early in the season in the passing department but his selection of plays and ability to run the triple-option has improved as evidenced by Evans' yardage gained and the fact the Tigers racked up three touchdowns last week against Pittsburg State, 3-2 in the RMAC.

Defensively, the Tiger leader is Lloyd Logsdon who has 15 unassisted tackles and 86 assists. Joe Kulbiski and Jack Georgeson come next on the defensive chart as Kulbiski has 14-87 unassisted-assisted tackles and Georgeson 21-49. Lynn Lashbrook, Frank Tappan, Carl Helm, Phil Stramel, Ed Young, Steve Seirer and Frank Healy follow in order of their defensive rank.

THINGS TO WATCH TODAY: Omaha's Rocco Gonnella will display a talented air offense and Tom McKernan can catch the football. Both bear watching as the game progresses. Fort Hays State's Tommy Evans will need just 114 yards to crack the 1,000 yard mark and he'll have a tough defense against the rush facing him. The defensive front five of Frank Tappan (74), Ed Young (65), Joe Gresnick (71), Scotty Turned (85) and Frank Healy (52) should provide a good rush and the linebacking corp of Lloyd Logsdon (43), Phil Stramel (42) and Joe Kulbiski (41) will be in a lot of tackles.

Tiger Tommy Evans Near New Season Rushing Mark

Tiger Tommy Evans, dubbed the "Mini-Brute" early in the season because of his 5-8 size and power running, provides Fort Hays State fans with as much excitement as the Tigers can muster. The record-setting Evans already owns the single game high of 267 yards and today shoots for the season high of 898-yards set by Rich Dreiling in 1966. Evans needs just 13 yards to his 886 yards total to set the mark.

Evans

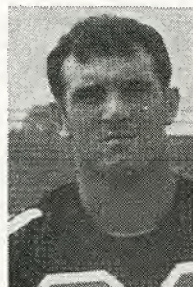

Early in the season, Fort Hays looked like a passing team as they couldn't get the ground game going. Tommy Evans suffered in those early contests as he went 18 for 69 yards, 17 for 30 and 20 for 47. Then in the fourth game of the season against Northwest Missouri State at Maryville, the "Mini-Brute" struck. Evans battered out 119 yards in 26 trips to start the ground game in motion. A slump to 82 yards at Washburn University was followed by his record-setting 267 yard romp against Emporia, a 106-yard effort against Southern Colorado and a solid 166 yards at Pittsburg State.

The all-time Tiger ground gainer is Rich Dreiling who shoved his way to 2,956 yards in four years. Dreiling also holds the single season high of 898 yards which will probably fall in today's game.

Evans, a Highland Junior College transfer, is happy with his newly acquired role as Top Tiger on the ground. "I'm happy about the record," he said after the Emporia game, "but I wish we had a better won-lost record." That pretty well sums up the modest, tough little guy who has struggled his way into the hearts of Fort Hays fans even though the Tigers haven't been too successful in winning football games. In the casebook for Bengal football, the littlest Tiger presents a strong indication that "maybe" the Kansas Cats may do better in 1970.

Omaha Tops In Passing

The eleventh ranked NAIA passing offense will provide the Tiger defensive secondary with just about all they can handle as Omaha University moves in for the final Fort Hays State football clash.

Omaha's Rocco Gonnella, a 5-10, 180-pound junior quarterback, stands as the major obstacle for the Tigers as the New Yorker is ranked fifth in the nation in passing and tops the Rocky Mountain Conference statistics sheet. The rugged signal-caller has a career record of 231 completions in 523 attempts for a .464 percentage. He has had 36 interceptions but hit 18 touchdown passes with 2,900 yards passing to date.

One of the major reasons for Gonnella's success is the ability of Tom McKernan, a flankerback, who ranks seventh in the nation in pass receiving and second in the RMAC behind Bruce Cerone, the all-time leader from Emporia State. McKernan has an average of 110.5 yards per game in receiving yardage with 48 receptions to his credit.

Another facet of the Omaha attack is the rushing game led by the running of Phil Wise, a 5-11, 180 pound junior. Wise is second in RMAC scoring with 66 points and is high in rushing with better than 600 yards. Omaha also ranks third in team total offense with a 378.5 yard average but is 12th on team defense with 393.8 yards allowed per game. Fort Hays is ninth in team defense with 423.4 yards allowed.

The series between the Tigers and the Indians stands at 8-3-1 for Omaha with last year's tilt going to the Indians 32-14. The last time Fort Hays downed the Nebraskans was in 1966 when the Tigers shut them out 19-0. In the past eight games, Fort Hays has only a single win and a tie to show for the competition.

Basketball Opener Dec. 1

After three weeks of practice Fort Hays State basketball coach Chuck Brehm is well-pleased with the progress of the Tiger cagers.

Coach Brehm came to FHS five years ago following a successful coaching stint at Dodge City Junior College. While at Dodge City Brehm was named the 1964 National Junior College Coach of the Year. That same year his squad won the national junior college basketball championship in Hutchinson.

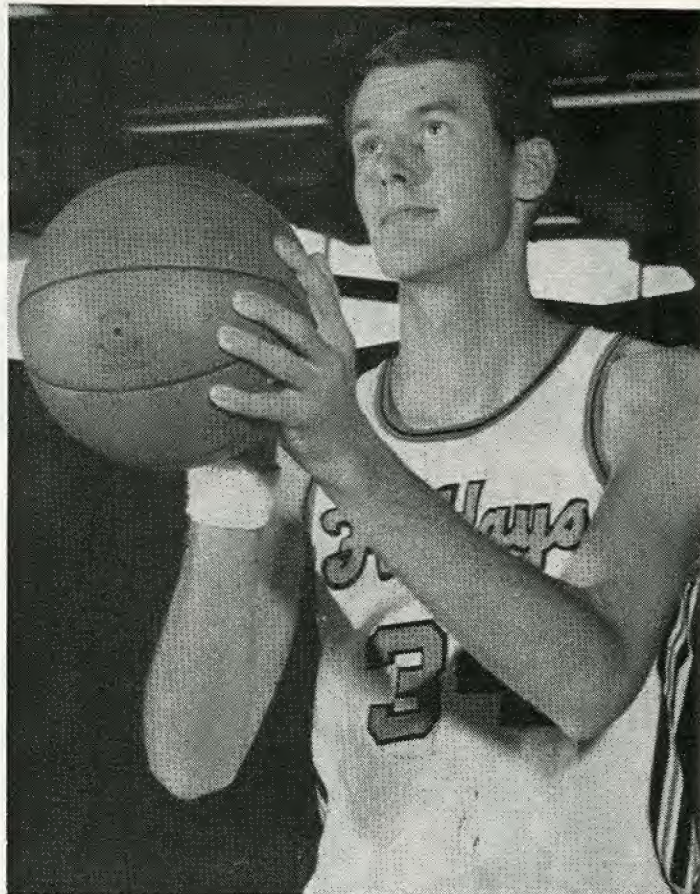

This year the Topeka native is faced with the task of molding a working unit from four returning lettermen, a number of junior college transfers and junior varsity players from last season.

Only four lettermen returned from last year's squad which finished the season with a 9-13 mark. Martyn Howgill (6-8) is the tallest man on the squad and is the only cager that started last year with any regularity. Other lettermen include Bob Bartkoski (6-5), Darryl Apel (5-10) and Leneal Locke (6-0).

Moving up from the Tiger junior varsity are Mike Gaskell (6-7) and Mel Kitts (6-6). The two juniors are expected to give the Tigers added rebounding support this season.

Coach Brehm is also counting heavily on transfers Daryl Stockstill (6-4), Gary Vejvoda (6-0), Duane Rauhut (5-10) and Al Campbell (6-3). At the present time Stockstill, who came to FHS from Hutchinson Junior College is the only sure starter when the Tigers open the 1969-70 season Dec. 1 at Kearney, Neb., against the Kearney State Antelopes.

"We really don't have any outstanding individuals," Brehm said, "but we're getting a real good team effort and the attitude of the squad is great."

Break your beard in right.

Right now your beard is in the formative stage.

You can shave it with a razor blade like your father does. And each time you do your beard will grow back a little more difficult. Until one day shaving's no longer a chore. It's an agony.

Look no further than your father's face for proof.

But fortunately, you're catching your beard at an early age. You can break it in to be just as shaveable 10 and 20 years from now as it is today.

With a REMINGTON® Lektro Blade shaver.

And if you think the kind of shave we're selling won't be close enough for you, you're wrong.

Our new Lektro Blade shaver has very sharp disposable blades. Just like a razor. So it gives very close shaves. Just like a razor.

What's more, you can dial a Lektro Blade shaver into a sideburn trimmer.

Admittedly, it costs more to buy our electric shaver than a razor and some blades.

But it's a good investment.

These next few years will determine how you and your beard will get along for the rest of your lives. *SPERRY RAND® LECTRO BLADE: TRADEMARK OF SPERRY RAND CORP. ©1969 S. R.
